

↓ Laure Portier

Biography

Laure Portier was born in 1983 in Deux-Sèvres. After a degree in Modern Literature in Toulouse and a year at ESAV, she joined INSAS in Brussels. After graduating, she became a camera assistant and worked on several feature-length fiction films. In 2019, she presented her first short film, The Dog's Eye, winner of the Short Film Prize at the Cinéma du Réel festival. Soy Libre is her first feature film.

Filmography

- The Dog's Eye (2019)
- Soy Libre (2021)